THE WORLD PREMIERE OF TOM GOLD'S

SPECTRAL PRELUDES

DURING THE 2019 FALL SEASON OF TOM GOLD DANCE

New York, NY—The World Premiere of Tom Gold Dance Founder and Director Tom Gold's evening-length Spectral Preludes, set to Lera Auerbach's 24 Preludes for Piano, will take place during the 2019 fall season of Tom Gold Dance, Friday, November 15 and Saturday, November 16, 2019 at Florence Gould Hall at the French Institute Alliance Française.

Currently scheduled to perform are dancers Michael Sean Breeden, Evelyn Kocak, Abigail Mentzer, Davide Riccardo, and Mimi Tompkins. Pianist Arthur Williford will provide live accompaniment.

"Our fall season is already emerging as a platform to expand on ideas from earlier works," says Tom Gold. "Spectral Preludes, in particular, references the concise constructions found in Significant Strangers from our most recent spring season within the longer framework of Apparatus Hominus, which launched our fall season a year ago. The haunting, otherworldly qualities of Lera Auerbach's 24 Preludes set the tone for our program.

"We're grateful," ads Gold "to our audiences who encourage us to explore these newest paths of expression."

The 2019 fall season of Tom Gold Dance is made possible, in part, through the generosity of the Leon Lowenstein Foundation.

About Tom Gold Dance

The mission of Tom Gold Dance is to bring the past, present, and future of classical dance to audiences in New York and around the world. Founded in 2008 by former New York City Ballet soloist Tom Gold, Tom Gold Dance aspires to the highest level of artistry expressed through a traditional classical dance vocabulary, including in more than a dozen works by Gold, envisioned for and set directly on the Company. Tom Gold Dance performs regularly in New York City, and has traveled to France, Spain, Italy, Bermuda, Israel, Cuba, and Bulgaria. Company highlights include four consecutive summer appearances in the Berkshires, and presentations of Gold's adaptation of November Steps at The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, as well as at Fondazione Palazzo Albizzini Collezione Burri in Città di Castello, Italy, and the Guggenheim in Bilbao, Spain.

In New York, Tom Gold Dance presents an annual spring and fall season. The Company made its fall debut in 2018 with the New York City Premiere of Gold's Apparatus Hominus, originally staged outdoors at TurnPark Space in West Stockbridge, MA. In July 2019, Tom Gold Dance appeared at the Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum, augmenting a long tradition of collaboration with museums and other centers of art. The following month, the Company conducted a residency at OnStage at Kingsborough under a CUNY Dance Initiative award, the Company's second since 2017. Learn more at tomgolddance.org.

About Tom Gold
